DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1958, are privileged to have the honor of dedicating our yearbook, the Palladium, to the Sisters of St. Joseph, whose long-awaited dream of a new Motherhouse has finally become a reality.

FOREWORD

by

Judie Schleeter

How long we have looked FORWARD to the pleasures and happiness involved in the Graduation and Commencement exercises! The contemplated time has finally arrived as we begin to fully realize the complete distinction between school days and the new era of life we are ready to launch. Now we will be able to put to practical use our Catholic education as we enter our chosen path of life.

Countless memories are woven into our pattern of fond days spent at SJA. We will cling to these memories as occasionally we catch a glimpse of a dance or concert we have attended or participated in; a party, tea, Junior-Senior Trip or a Feastday Program in honor of a beloved teacher. We've witnessed the re-arrangement of the Academy buildings, as our classrooms were enlarged or changed to meet a challenging and fast-growing student body. Retreats, May Day and extra-curricular activities will occupy a special place in our memories. Always will we possess the feeling of accomplishment and completion as we daily watched the Motherhouse rise to new and greater heights, as a continuously standing memorial to the Sisters of Saint Joseph.

May we, the Class of 1958, take this opportunity to express our deep gratitude and appreciation to the Class of 1908 for first publishing such a high and noble annual as Palladium, which was bestowed upon our predecessors as well as ourselves, and to be conferred upon the future graduates of the Academy.

Happy Golden Anniversary, dear Palladium, on your fiftieth publication. We feel honored and privileged to be your composers, and may your high standards and ideals forever be present in each future edition.

MOST REVEREND JOHN J. CARBERRY, Ph. D., S.T.D., J.C.D.

Through this issue of St. Joseph's Academy yearbook, the PALLADIUM, the senior class offers greetings to our Most Reverend Bishop. While the Church has always been blessed with wise, generous and holy bishops, we feel that the Diocese of Lafayette in Indiana has been particularly blessed in its first two bishops.

Bishop John J. Carberry has proved himself truly zealous in becoming personally acquainted with his devoted people, and, we personally say — with the students of St. Joseph's. We have in many ways experienced his great influence in our spiritual betterment. Proudly, to him do we pledge our loyalty and our full-hearted co-operation, and humbly beg his Episcopal blessing.

IN MEMORIAM

MOST REVEREND JOHN G. BENNETT, D.D.

The Sisters of Saint Joseph and the girls of SJA lost their dearest friend and benefactor in the death of his Excellency, the Most Reverend John G. Bennett, November 20, 1957.

During our Freshman year, he conducted our Retreat, and has visited SJA on numerous and unforgettable occasions such as May Day and Graduation.

The Motherhouse stands as a memorial to his wise council and advice, encouragement and great personal interest in the Community. Although he never saw or used the Bishop's Suite in the new Motherhouse, which was built for him, we will always possess fond memories of his kindness and goodness to all as we pass by the suite many times a day.

The Beloved Bishop, who always had a special place in his heart for the youth under his care, left us with this thought:

"Walk in His presence and He will never forsake you."

TRIBUTE TO MOTHER GERARD

The students and friends of St. Joseph's and the community in general thank God for one of His greatest gifts to the Church, the noble Sisters. In the sweet seclusion of the convent school and amid the surrounding parish schools, in patience and purity they dedicate their spiritual natures to the training of youth.

Forty years ago on February 2nd, a great blessing was conferred on St. Joseph's by the entrance into the community of Mother Gerard. She plays the part of both Mary and Martha in the spirit of prayer and the spirit of labor.

My mother has often told us how Mother Gerard, then Sister Gerard, was almost a constant companion to Mother Xavier. She even drove the Nash; in those days few Sisters drove automobiles.

Mother Gerard uses the talents God has given her for the furtherance of His work. She shows to the world the gentleness and sweetness of Our Immaculate Model Mary who wrote no books, painted no pictures, thrilled no audience with her eloquence, inaugurated no great reform. But she is "our tainted nature's solitary boast."

Mother Gerard's spirit is one of toil and sacrifice for God, for others, for school, and for country. With the help of the Sisters and friends she was able to erect the new Motherhouse which stands as a monument to her efforts. It took vision and added to that vision no small amount of courage.

True leadership without oppression enables Mother Gerard to bring peace and harmony to those so closely associated with her. No stars bedeck her; no poet sings of her; no trumpets blare around her toilsome march, but some day the King's right hand will pin on her breast the Cross of His Legion of Honor.

SCHOOL BUSSES

Due to the greatly increased number of girls at Saint Joseph Academy, the number of busses has jumped from two to a total of three this year.

These busses, whether from Tipton or Kokomo, can be called dependable as they make their journey to school through rain or shine, snow or sleet. If a casualty should arise, as flat tires or inflated ones, dead batteries or broken down heaters; their drivers nevertheless continue to travel the distance to and from SJA.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY OF PALLADIUM

Fifty years! Half a century! Years which have included two world-shaking wars, a depression, and have witnessed either the birth or the development of the automobile, the airplane, the moving picture, radio, television, household appliances without number, in short, everything we consider necessary to modern living — not to mention atomic power and its vast potential. I ask you, who can point to a more interesting or significant period of history?

But we were not thinking in terms of history when in 1908 we launched the first edition of St. Joseph's Palladium. Our ignorance of things editorial was nothing less than abysmal; but what we lacked in know-how we made up for in ambition and enthusiasm.

The Palladium was the natural outgrowth of our Literary Society. Each Friday afternoon St. Joseph's students devoted to a program of literary efforts, — plays, debates, elocution, and the crowning glory was the reading of the weekly Palladium. Each student in turn was responsible for its editing, and all were expected to contribute stories, poems, jokes and accounts of student activities. Sister Xavier as head of the English Department was our mentor and our inspiration, and was no doubt responsible for the classical name chosen for our paper. Under her guidance we were encouraged to express ourselves by the written word both early and late, with emphasis on originality.

Just when the Class of 1908 first entertained the idea of publishing an annual Palladium is hard for me to recall, but I do remember quite well the vast amount of planning, exhortation, writing and re-writing, along with the burning of much midnight oil, which went into the compiling of that first little volume. The months of work involved seemed all out of proportion to its modest dimensions when completed, but we breathed happy sighs of relief when we finally went to press.

I am proud to have played a part in the editing of that first Palladium, but I am prouder still that St. Joseph's students throughout the years have so ably and successfully maintained the tradition that the Class of 1908 established.

My congratulations to the Class of 1958 and to the Classes of all the intervening years!

CLASSES

CHEMISTRY

The science of Chemistry is invaluable in 20th century living. Thanks to good chemists we enjoy better clothing, good foods, modern household conveniences, luxurious automobiles and many other items.

At SJA, we are most fortunate to have as our chemistry teacher, loveable, likeable and conscientious, Sister Madonna.

BIOLOGY

Biology is not only a study of plants, but of all God's living creatures. It is a most interesting study because it reveals the beauty of our Creator's handiwork.

Sister Agnes instructs her World History Class in helpful manner. She looks on as Barbara Taylor and Frieda Marschke demonstrate important facts and places of interest to the class from the weekly newspaper used by the class.

Mary K. Hannigan '60

Under the capable direction of Sister de Lourdes, we learn the fundamentals and technique of mastering Plane Geometry.

Although progress is slow at times and the problems are unusually hard to understand, we thoroughly enjoy our study of this subject and feel that it can and will be put to practical use in later life.

Virginia Cyr '60

TOMORROW

To be a very good secretary one must have speed and accuracy in typing and shorthand. Much concentration and thinking is needed for these Commercial Studies including bookkeeping.

SJA offers all these courses not only to develop good citizens, but also experienced secretaries. One does not realize it now, but by taking these subjects it will be appreciated in life later on.

America is the land of the free. There are many opportunities and vocations to chose, but the life of a secretary outrates many. One has to be alert and stay awake at all times. We are pleased and thankful to have experienced teachers, Sister Margaret Mary and Alice Ryan, to complete our further knowledge in these Commercial Studies.

COMMERCIAL STUDIES

With the light touch of the keys the door to success is opened for secretaries of tomorrow! A good secretary gains a thorough knowledge of the business and learns the techniques of letter writing. She completes her letters so they are clear, complete, concise, correct, courteous, conversational and co-operative. When this is finished she has attained the height of letter writing, plus the fundamental standards of a model secretary.

A good secretary will do her utmost to prepare for a higher climb in her work. She knows that only by consciously trying can she learn the things needed to reach the peak of success. She will prove to herself that if she practices hard enough, greatly needed typing skill and technique can be acquired.

In the Commercial world we find the students writing shorthand fluently, expertly and easily. They strive to perfect their style in shorthand, for speed in dictation and for proficiency in transcribing it.

Taking all these suggestions into consideration, the motto "Practice Makes Perfect" comes to mind, a motto true in every respect.

SOROR

"REPETITIO EST MATER STUDIORUM"

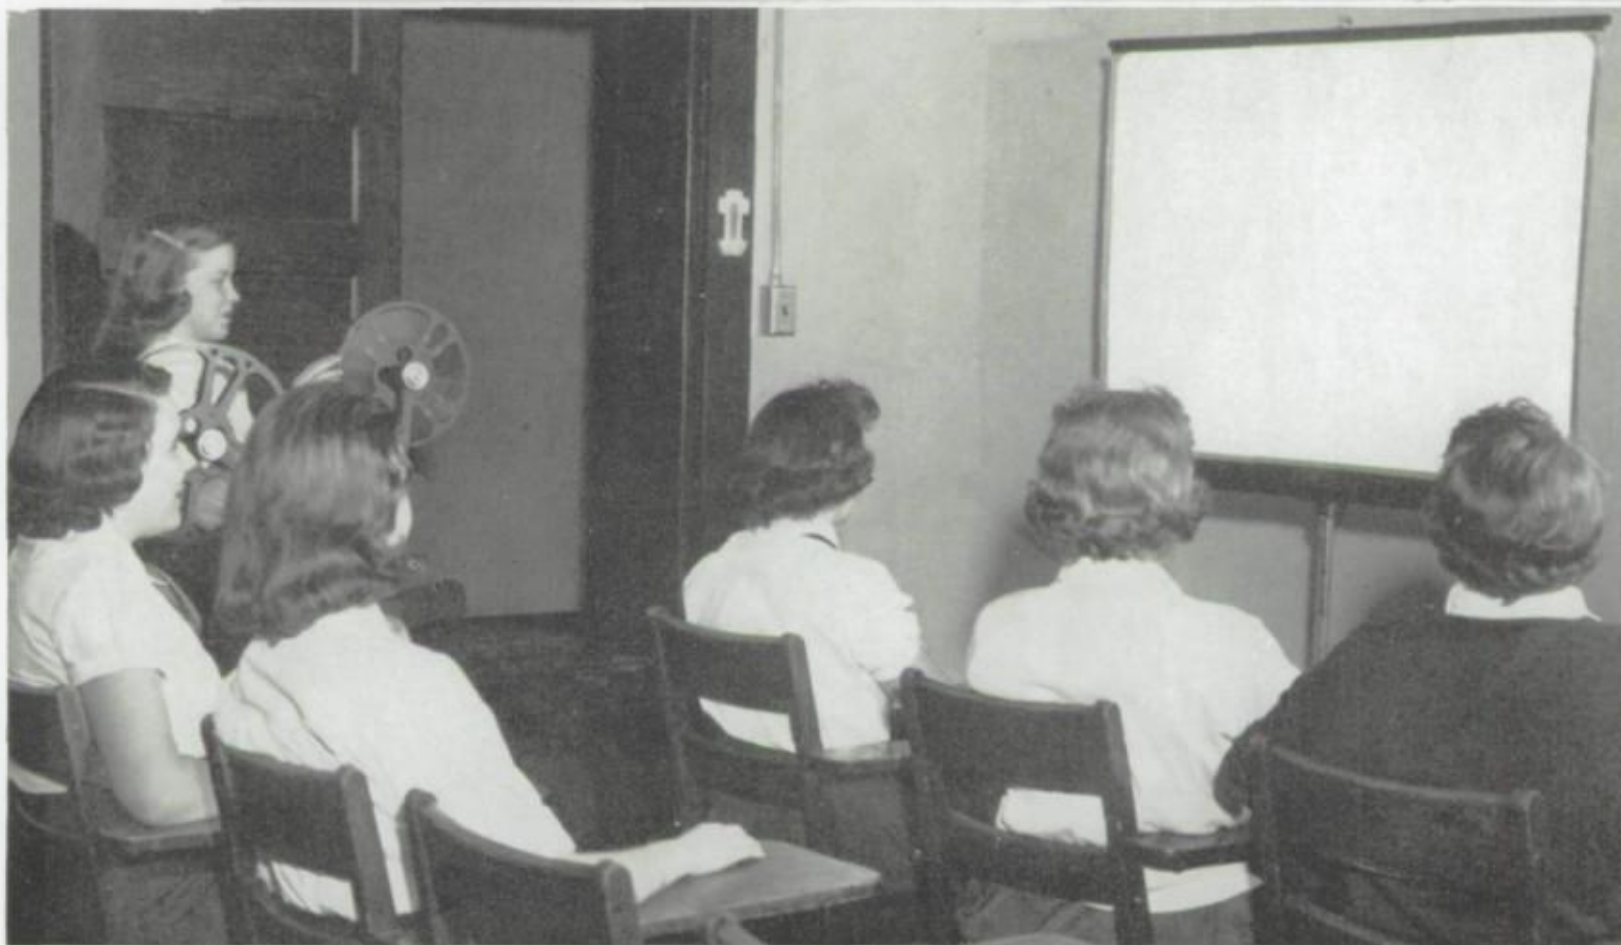

"REPETITION IS THE MOTHER OF STUDIES"

This quotation is frequently presented to the Latin Class by Sister Angelica, in her efforts to teach her class that it is not too difficult to translate Caesar and his Gallic Wars, in addition to other notable leaders of that time, such as Varius and Vergil and St. Thomas Aquinas.

This particular day in class finds the students engrossed in the latest issue of Auxilium Latinum, National Classroom Latin Magazine.

A knowledge of basic Latin, these students find, is valuable in learning history, and especially English. There is no truth in the statement that "Latin is a dead language," as most of the English words we speak today are derived from Latin. How lucky were the Romans to have such an excellent and perfect language to speak!

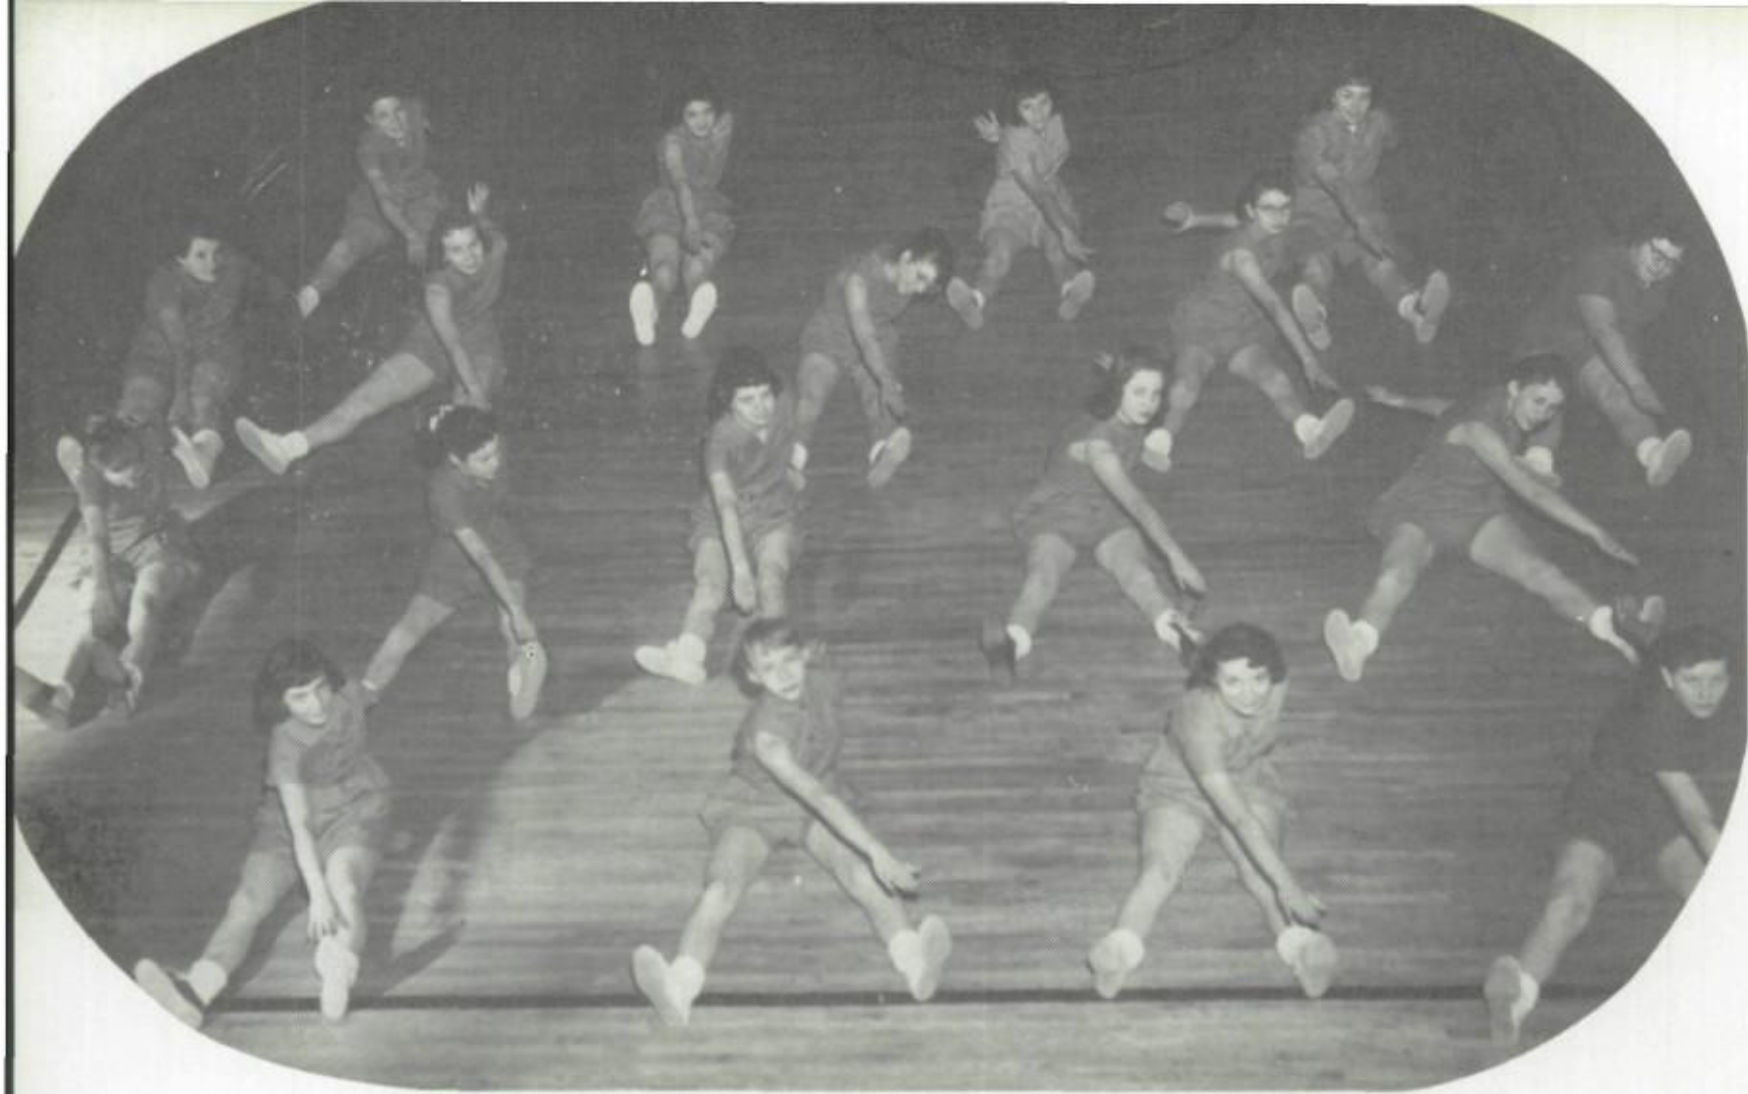

In later years, students of Latin will fully realize the opportunities and advantages bestowed upon them by their study of Latin, and will profit more than they now realize, as a result of a course of Classical Latin at SJA.

TOP: Students receiving drivers training under the proficient supervision of Sister Madonna, will become cautious, courteous and well informed drivers. Instructions are given through many hours of observation, visual guide and behind-the-wheel driving.

This year, classes enjoy a luxurious black, 1958 Ford, loaned by Mr. Jack Barnes, local Ford dealer in Tipton.

BOTTOM: Tipton Premiere? Hardly, it is merely part of the daily routine at the Academy, watching movies. Classes such as Home-Ec., Drivers Education and Civics use this room for the purpose of showing films, thus increasing their knowledge of the latest events of the world, plus tips and demonstrations on cooking, sewing and driving.

In Phys. Ed. calisthenics and various games, including basketball, soft ball, volley ball give variety to the work of developing "mens sana in sano corpore."

game of

BOTTOM: A beautiful sewing machine, recently added to the Home Ec. department, received much attention from sewing students.

A wide variety of wearing apparel was made by the class with the aid of Sister de Lourdes, as the students find it economical as well as useful to make use of their sewing skill.

Barbara Garst tries out the new appliance, as Martha Walsh, Carol Coxon, Pat Ewing, Margaret Derleth, Darlene Joerger and Rita Wiles look on, offering helpful suggestions and anxiously awaiting their turn.

ART CLASS, MOFFITT HALL IN MOTHERHOUSE

Dreams of the future are being readied in the recently erected St. Joseph Motherhouse, for within its hallowed walls we find Moffitt Hall, dedicated to the pursuit of fine arts.

Though the Art Class is few in number, we enjoy great relaxation and variety working in our spacious, well lighted department trying to master the techniques of calligraphy and drawing.

Sister Eugenia's help we find, is not only necessary but indispensable as she endeavors to teach us the skill of working with pastels, paints and other interesting media.

We greatly appreciate the privilege of being able to attend class in the new Motherhouse, and the expert advice and guidance received each day.

ACTIVITIES

This year we find two groups of Choramarians, Junior and Senior groups. Together, they consist of nearly 160 girls. Several programs were given by the Choramarians in honor of the Sisters' Feastdays and special occasions.

Carolyn Nichols, Senior, was Directress of both groups. On the 30th

The group was organized in November of 1956, in preparation for their first appearance on Sister Madonna's Feast Day, December 8th. Through the suggestion of Sister M. Eugenia they received the name "Blendettes," and have been very successful in entertaining at parties and banquets, on the radio and for various Church and school activities.

PRIVATE MUSIC LESSONS

Mrs. St. Clair is shown instructing one of her students in the art of piano playing. Aside from her piano instruction, she offers lessons in elocution. At the Music Recital held each year at SJA, students and teachers are able to see and hear the results of her training, as music and elocution students provide an afternoon of enjoyment for all. One of the girls receives the Mother Gertrude Memorial Medal for Music.

In the library, the main source of information at SJA, Judy Henry checks out a book for Carol Tragesser while Agnes Garst looks through the pages of a fiction book. Edna Kochert, post-graduate, offers advice and suggestions.

The three girls below are looking over our "Catholic Press Month" display, which was displayed in the Reference Room. Students of the Academy co-operated with promoters of the Catholic Press by reading, swallowing and digesting good, Catholic books, magazines, pamphlets and reading material.

CAMPUS QUEEN IS CROWNED

On February 12, 1958, Margie Mannion, Senior from Kokomo, was elected Campus Queen by the entire student body. At the St. Valentine Dance, held in St. Katharine Hall on February 13th, she was crowned by a fellow Senior, Karen Thrine from Lebanon. Representing the Senior Class as attendant was Nancy King, Kokomo.

Attendants from the other classes were: Paula Black, Sophomore and Sharon Gerardot, Freshman.

The Queen and her escort led the Grand March to the statue of Our Heavenly Queen, where all present sang a hymn in honor of her, "On This Day O Beautiful Mother."

S J A CAMPUS

Upon entering the beautiful lane to St. Joseph Academy, various types of maple trees and flowers attract one's attention as they gaily lead to the statue of our beloved school patron, St. Joseph. The circular drive surrounding him brings one before the Academy building which has been the yearly home of many Boarders and recalls to mind the many memorable classes of Students, past and present, and surely to the patient Sisters who so willingly spent their time teaching here.

The new Motherhouse has been added to the scenery of our campus. Its quiet beauty and serenity enchant a passer-by.

Numerous grottos and shrines are scattered in other sections of the campus which add to the many attractive scenes that arouse the visiting spree of our passing friends and neighbors. Among these grottos are: Our Lady of Lourdes, St. Theresa, Our Lady of Fatima, the Sacred Heart and also the Way of the Cross.

How lucky we are to enjoy such a scenic and gorgeous campus like the one that completely surrounds our school. God was certainly generous and plentiful when He picked out this land for the Academy.

In addition to the many changes at the Academy the SJAers, with refreshments in hand, are enjoying themselves in the snack-bar room, recently named "St. Nick's Nook," by the girls of SJA.

Something new has been added in the Academy building! Oh really — what?

Here we see a few SJA girls enjoying an after lunch chat in the gaily decorated lunch-room in the Academy building.

In keeping with the appeal of Our Holy Father, Pope Pius XII to the faithful to observe the centenary of Our Blessed Lady's apparitions at Lourdes, and in compliance with his Excellency, Bishop Carberry's exhortation in his pastoral letter of February 9th, the Sisters of St. Joseph announce a series of Tridua to be held in the Motherhouse Chapel.

A triduum, open to the public, is held each month in preparation for a feast of Our Lady, as follows:

February 11	Lady of Lourdes
March 25	The Annunciation
April 26	Lady of Good Council
May 31	Queenship of Mary
June 27	Lady of Perpetual Help
July 2	The Visitation
August 15	The Assumption
September 8	The Nativity
October 7	The Holy Rosary
November 21	The Presentation
December 8	Immaculate Conception

This Shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes has been located on SJA's campus since 1926. It is the scene of various activities, such as the Crowning of Our Blessed Lady on May Day and several public devotions, like those described above.

LEGION OF MARY

The Legion of Mary, in its second year after being re-activated at St. Joseph Academy, is fulfilling a wide variety of assignments.

The main duties of its thirty active members include making cord rosaries for the migrant workers, visiting hospitals, distributing Catholic literature and performing various assignments on the campus. The motive of the Legion of Mary is to increase devotion to Our Lady through the rosary, prayers and spiritual duties.

Father Dempsey	Spiritual Director
Martha Barrett	President
Virginia Velasquez	Vice-President
Carolyn Nichols	Secretary
Mary Harber	Treasurer

MAY DAY

Deanne Cole of Elwood was privileged to have the honor of crowning Our Blessed Lady on May Day in 1957.

This year, for the Class of 1958, Nancy King of Kokomo, will fulfill the duty on May 27th.

Virginia Perez is to be Maid of Honor, and Martha Funke will carry the Banner of Our Blessed Lady. Joan Zimmerer, Sandy Plake, Carolyn Nichols and Dana Fletcher will carry on their shoulders, the statue of Our Lady to be crowned at the Lourdes Shrine. The remaining Seniors will carry their class flowers.

May Day finds hundreds of girls, parents and friends visiting the Academy on one of the most important days for the Sisters and students, that of witnessing the crowning of Our Heavenly Mother Mary.

RETREAT

The Reverend Reginald Gilman, S.M., conducted SJA's Retreat, January 29, 30 and 31. His definition of Retreat, as we'll always remember, "is a time to rest and talk things over with God."

Mass, conferences, confessions, communions, visits and recreation were on the daily schedule, as Academy girls spent three days in Retreat, which is most necessary in one's spiritual life.

In the picture, Judy Hedrick and Marianne Aerne receive advice and timely information from the Retreatmaster, Father Gilman, during one of his many Private Conferences.

VIEW OF CHAPEL IN MOTHERHOUSE

The student body of SJA feels proud and privileged to attend Mass and receive Holy Communion in such a beautiful chapel as we have at our disposal.

GIRLS' DINING ROOM IN MOTHERHOUSE

Mary Kay Hannigan, Susan Iehl and Patty Martin are glad to wash tables and dishes after meals in their new Dining Room.

KITCHENETTE ON THIRD FLOOR

The Boarders enjoy their "own" little kitchenette on the third floor of the Motherhouse. It is fully equipped with sink, stove, refrigerator, utensils and ample cupboard space.

Ann Gremelspacher and Lurae Gilmore enjoy chatting and looking through old Palladiums in Lurae's bedroom. Boarders enjoy private rooms this year, completely satisfactory to each one's individual taste.

TIMOTHAEUS KIM

Timothaeus Kim Kyou Htai, better known to St. Joseph Academy as Timothy Kim, was ordained a priest on St. Joseph Day, March 19, 1958, at Holy Ghost College in Seoul, Korea.

Timothy is the beneficiary of the Pension which was established in September, 1952, by the Reverend Leo Faurote, in the name of the Academy girls. Numerous and generous offerings were sent to the National Director of the "Society For The Propagation Of The Faith," The Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen, Ph. D., D. D. and he "adopted" the seminarian for the SJA girls.

The motive behind these contributions is that through the enrichment of the liturgy in lands of poverty, we may glorify God amidst economic distress, and to ensure the future of our great Catholic Leaders.

Several letters have been forwarded to the Academy by The Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen from our protege, Timothy Kim. Among these letters were several photographs of the Holy Ghost College, and some inspiring and actually beautiful words. These letters are pinned to the bulletin board for all to read and enjoy.

In his Easter Greeting, he says: "Easter crowned with roses and olives may bring to you and your loved ones the perfume of all virtues and the Celestial Benediction."

In the latest letter, when we learned of his ordination, he asks that we "pray to God for me, to be a zealous Pastor."
